DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or
REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Imajo et al (5,877,736).

Regarding claims 1, 5 and 10, Imajo teaches of a display device driver provided with leads (Fig. 11, reference characters Vss-V8) coupled to at least one multiplexer (Fig. 11, reference character 209) and to a first switching device that enables interruption of a voltage supply to the leads (see Fig. 11, the multiplexer acts as a switch that enables interruption of a voltage supply to any of the leads), and also provided with at least one second switching device that is coupled to the leads and whereby at least one of the leads can be switched to a selectable potential (see Fig. 11, the multiplexer selects the desired potential for any of the leads), wherein the second switching device in the output stage switches the lead that is selected by the multiplexer to a test reference potential (see Fig. 11, the selected lead is switched by the multiplexer to a test reference potential).

Regarding claim 2, Imajo further teaches of the output stages being provided with at least one multiplexer (Fig. 11, reference character 209) and at least one amplifier (Fig. 11, reference character OP4).

Art Unit: 2673

Regarding claim 3, Imajo further teaches that second switches devices are provided in all output stages (All output stages can have their own second switch or multiplexer).

Regarding claim 4, Imajo teaches that the multiplexer can be controlled by a digital signal arranged to switch a voltage present on the leads (It is inherent for a multiplexer to be controlled by a digital signal to carry out one or more of its functions).

Regarding claim 6, Imajo further teaches that in a test mode the first switch connects the leads to a common potential and separates them from this potential (col. 24, lines 14-23).

Regarding claim 7, Imajo teaches that a voltage generator generates at least one voltage for supply to the leads (Fig. 5, reference character 208).

Regarding claim 8, Imajo further teaches of the switches being controlled separately (The switches can be controlled one by one).

Regarding claim 9, Imajo teaches that the output stages are connected to terminals of a display device (see Fig. 11, the leads from multiplexer 209 are shown to connect to terminals of the display device).
